A Place

©2015 Judith Sloan

a place is more
than the empty spaces

marshes and plains
turn to farms
and towns
and generations
who fill
empty spaces
where more than buildings remain
to recreate
a city

empty spaces
hold memories
future dreams
transform
the next moment

time
gives rise to new
stories
lives

we all have empty
space
somewhere

inside
leaving
room for something
to grow
and
reside
