Urbia

not really urban
not really suburban

he said

when i first moved here all i knew about were the
malls

then i discovered
the neighborhoods
the mom and pop shops
i've lived
in almost every part of white plains
over the years
lake street
the highlands
a small town feeling
the flavor
of a large city
that keeps me
here
i like the life on the street

not really urban
not really suburban

it's its own thing
urbia
our own thing
