

Rise to the Occasion

It takes more than a road map to raise the level of ambition, raise your game, raise your imagination, rise to the occasion. The heat is on, we cannot wait. Good things can happen.

fix this thing	to	tap dance near a tree stump	fire up the engines	when you pass the torch in the face	sustain	whistle by the ocean	make the improbable	carry the ball of brokenness	maintain	doodle on a rooftop	the possible	yearn not alone	remain	cherish the water	the real	and learn but together	humane	save the sky	this could be	to turn the worst news harmonize	the beginning	into better with the wind	of a quantum leap	futures
